

Martin, William

Cape Cod

A popular historical saga about two intertwined families from their Pilgrim origins to the present day. This book is packed with Cape Cod history.

McCracken, Elizabeth

The Giant's House

Peggy Cort, the reclusive librarian, falls for a boy, 14 years her junior. A very strange and tragic love story ensues.

Mitchard, Jacquelyn

Twelve Times Blessed

Celebrating her 43rd birthday with her best friends, True Dickenson has never felt so alone. Romance seems so far away until a stranger rescues her from a snowy ditch.

Palmer, Joe

Sand Castle

A murder mystery that takes the reader into the world of organized crime, family feuds and romance. The story unfolds on Cape Cod and various other cities in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

Pepper, Kate

Five Days in Summer

Emily Parker makes a quick run to the grocery store before the drive home from their vacation on Cape Cod. When she doesn't return, her husband and a retired FBI profiler desperately search for her on the Cape, while the madman has his sights set on Parker's son.

Piercy, Marge and Ira Wood

Storm Tide

A novel about a minor league baseball player who returns to his small hometown on Cape Cod, makes a bid for political office, finds himself torn between two women, and witnesses a horrible tragedy.

Stockenberg, Antoinette

A Month at the Shore

Following the death of her father, Laura Shore and her siblings return to Cape Cod and try to salvage her father's failing nursery business. Greedy property developers, a murder investigation, love and a killer all get mixed in.

Cape Cod Fiction

These books all feature Cape Cod or the Islands as the setting.

CHATHAM FICTION

Clark, Mary Higgins

Remember Me

In the great style of Mary Higgins Clark, this is one of her best psychological thrillers. A family who has lost their son, vacations in a house in Chatham. The family can't get any rest in this strange house with a sinister past.

Connors, Rose

Absolute Certainty

A series of crime fiction novels, featuring attorney Marty Nickerson. You'll recognize lots of Chatham and Cape Cod landmarks. Absolute Certainty follows with Temporary Sanity, Maximum Security and False Testimony.

Cook, Thomas

Chatham School Affair

A crime fiction novel where attorney Henry Griswald reveals the truth about a (fictional) event in Chatham that destroyed lives and shattered a quaint community.

Denk, Roger

Stepping Stones

Set in the 1960's and 70's, Andy Reid stumbles across a secret that a small town (Chatham) has been keeping since WWII.

Geary, Nancy

Being Mrs. Alcott

Grace Alcott has always been resigned to take what life gave her. As her husband sells their Cape Cod home and she becomes terminally ill, Grace finally has the strength to take control of her life.

Eldredge Public Library

564 Main Street

Chatham, MA 02633

508-945-5170

Booklists can be found online at:
<http://www.eldredgelibrary.org>

Heavey, Frank

Dying to Sea

Action packed, suspenseful book full of Chatham scenery and popular landmarks.

Hoffman, Alice

Blackbird House

This story follows many generations of families who lived in the Blackbird House.

LeClaire, Anne

Lavender Hour

Cancer survivor Jesse Long relocates to the Cape and begins volunteering at an Hospice center. She falls in love with her first patient, 45 year old commercial fisherman Luke. Jesse is later charged with his murder.

Noble, Elizabeth

The Friendship Test

Four friends who met in college put their friendship to the test 20 years later.

CAPE COD FICTION

Anable, Stephen

The Fisher Boy

A fast paced murder mystery that captures the color and flavor of Provincetown.

Bonasia, Lynn Kiele

Some Assembly Required

After discovering her boyfriend's infidelity, thirty-nine-year-old technical writer and aspiring journalist Rose moves away from the city and lands a local newspaper job on Cape Cod. She soon becomes involved in a decades-old mystery involving the disappearance of a teenage boy.

Clark, Mary Higgins

Where are the Children?

MHC's first bestseller is the story of a woman whose past holds a terrible secret. Nancy Harmon had been found guilty in a California court of murdering her two young children. She restarts her life on Cape Cod, only to find that her past is coming for revenge.

Dillard, Annie

The Maytrees

Toby Maytrees shares a simple life with his wife and son in the post-war artist community of his childhood.

Flook, Maria

Lux

Alden Warren is trying to get on with her life after her husband mysteriously disappears. Unfortunately her new lover is her husband's undetected killer.

Flynn, Raymond & Robin Moore

The Accidental Pope

Traces the remarkable (and fictional) journey of Bill Kelly, former priest turned Cape Cod fisherman, to the papacy.

Green, Jane

The Beach House

Set on Nantucket, an eccentric widow is forced to take in borders, which brings an unexpected visitor.

Gunning, Sally

Widows War

Set in a small Cape Cod town in 1761, Lydie Berry struggles for her freedom after her husband was lost in a whaling incident. A compelling historical novel that brings women suffrage in pre-Revolutionary America to the forefront. The saga continues with Bound. Gunning has also written a popular series of detective books featuring super sleuth Peter Bartholomew, set on Martha's Vineyard.

Hilderbrand, Elin

Barefoot

Three friends share an unforgettable summer on Nantucket.

Hough, John

The Last Summer

A classic love story of a young man just out of college and an older woman trying to leave her past behind.

Kemprecos, Paul

Mayflower Murder

One of many mystery books featuring private detective Aristotle Socarides.

Lee, Marie

The Curious Cape Cod Skull

The first book in a Cape Cod mystery trilogy.

Leone, Dorothy

Where the Herring Run

This is a fictional novel based on the amazing life of Albert Crosby, of the Crosby mansion in Brewster.

Loomis, Jon

High Season

Burnt out after nine years as a Baltimore cop, Frank Coffin returns to his hometown of Provincetown to take the job of local Sheriff. He soon gets caught up in an investigation of the killing of a vacationing TV evangelist.

Manuel, David

A Matter of Diamonds

Brother Bartholomew, a monk at the local Faith Abbey on Cape Cod, is called in to assist Police Chief Dan Burke after a local woman turns up tortured and murdered, with a fortune in diamonds missing.